your entrance I defy.
There are microbes in your footsteps and a crust upon your head. Which, if not microscopic, would fill our hearts with dread.

"If you enter, I have poison all prepared for you to eat.

And paper spread to tangle your germladen wings and feet.

I will polson, trap or smash you if you do not leave my door;
For our modern sanitation will endure your calls no more."

SUGGESTIVE HELPS.

A trained nurse prevented all disagreeable after effects of chloroform after an operation by the use of vinegar. Cause the patient to inhale the fumes of vinegar from a saturated cloth. She said she had never known it to fail.

To clean a silk or net waist, put it into a two quart fruit jar nearly filled with gasoline. Let it stand over night and in the morning, shake it back and forth. If quite solled it may need riusing in fresh gasoline.

When staying over night in a strange hotel, look for and locate the way to the fire escape before going into your room. Place a book or chair on the floor under the electric light fixture, so that it will be easy to find the globe.

Those of us who have groped for several minutes for a light fixture know how annoying it can be.
